THE
South-Carolina Gazette.
December 26th, 1754. [NUMB. 1070.]

The SPEECH of His Excellency CHARLES KNOWLES, Esq. Governor, &c. of Jamaica, to the Assembly of the said Island; delivered on Friday the 8th of November, 1754, at their Dissolution.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Assembly,

WHEN I met you at the opening of the session, I met you with a heart, truly disposed to join you, in promoting the welfare and happiness of this Island: But on reading your minutes of yesterday, it is to me plain, you are for carrying things on with so high and usurped an authority, that I should betray the trust reposed in me by his majesty, was I not to interpose.

The prerogative of the crown, and the liberties of the people, are your duty to maintain and preserve, as well as mine; and yet you are invading them daily. Some of you have also attempted to alter the established constitution of your country, and have entered into a combination to govern independently yourselves, as appears by a wicked Association, destructive to the rights and properties of the inhabitants, which hitherto have kept a secret.

The extraordinary Paper likewise, which was sent me last assembly, by your speaker, are proofs of the designs that have been laid to subvert our happy constitution, and wrest the power out of the hands of the crown.

The vast sums of money, for years past, lavish'd away in donations and gratifications to particular Favourites, the Forts that have been made in your fortifications, and other public buildings, to the amount towards of £. 90,000. within these few years, are [illegible] for redress [illegible] and I will redress, and make them publicly known, that the people may have an opportunity of contributing to their own happiness hereafter, by a more proper choice of their representatives.

The sounding words LIBERTY! and PRIVILEGES! I am sensible, convey dangerous ideas; but the loss of the people's LIBERTIES, may as soon happen, let me tell you, thro' the Tyranny of a Decemvirate, as under the administration of any single person.

Your power, of sitting here, is derived to you, by virtue of his majesty's commission under the great seal to me directed; and had you been disposed, to have done the public business with moderation, justice and candor, I should have heartily concurred with you: But such extraordinary resolutions as you came to yesterday, oblige me to put an end to this assembly. And I do therefore, in his majesty's name, by and with the advice of his council, dissolve this assembly; and you are hereby dissolved accordingly.

ASSOCIATION.

WE the under written, have taken into our serious consideration, of what importance it is to the good of any state or people, than an harmony should reign, not only among the public orders of the state, or branches of the legislature, but also, among the principal private members of the community: It too often happening the quarrels among private families, if they be principal ones, spread and grow into public feuds, parties or faction: Therefore as much as in us lies, to promote the blessings of unity, and avert the miseries of discord, we resolve to associate together, and laying by all private disgusts and quarrels, if any there have been, to act in concert, and as one body, for the carrying on good government, and the welfare of this island.

We resolve, not to propose any bills in either house, or take any step, whereby the public may be affected, without first consulting the other members of this association, and having their approbation.

And as nothing can tend more to the public good, than there should be a harmony between the governor of this island, and the principal gentlemen thereof, we resolve to stand by, and support admiral Knowles in the carrying on his administration, as long as he appears to us to have at heart the public service.

If any of us should happen to apprehend any of his measures to be hurtful to the public, we promise to give notice thereof to the other members, in order that if it should be the general opinion, that the apprehension is well grounded, and his measures wrong, all may join in desiring him to desist; and in case of his refusal, in opposing: But not oppose, without giving previous notice as above.

We think it reasonable, that his salary should be the same as the present governor's.

Whatever measure shall be agreed on by 5 fourths of the members of this association, shall be promoted by the unanimous concurrence of all.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 28.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in N-York, to his friend here, Nov. 13, 1754.

"THE following particulars I have just receiv'd from Albany, viz. The French governor at Canada, and his clergy, are doing what they can to draw off the two caſtles of Mohawks from us, which, if not ſoon prevented, they will effect, promiſing them very largely. The governor has ſent by the laſt Cachnawaga's a very hearty invitation to them to come to Canada, and that he will receive them with open arms. The Onondaga's, Cayouga's, and Tuſcarora's, went to Canada laſt month, to the number of 140. The Indians at Oſwego have behaved very inſolently to our people, and more particularly ſo ſince Waſhington's defeat. Many French and Indians march'd to the Ohio in September. Laſt month 32 of the Cachnawaga's and Schaweidadda's, were ſent from Canada to the Shawana's, and River Indians, living at and about Ohio; their orders are to treat with theſe nations, and demand an anſwer to a meſſage ſent them laſt year by the governor of Canada; and they are to do what they can to alienate them from us, or at leaſt to make them neuter in the Ohio affair."

Philadelphia, Dec. 5. Since our laſt, an expreſs arrived here from the back parts of this province, with advice, as we are informed, that a deſerter from the Virginia regiment, having told the French that a conſiderable body of forces were this winter expected from England, they had reinforced their fort at Monongahela with upwards of 1600 regular troops, 8 cannon, and a large ſupply of proviſions; that the French have alſo greatly increaſed their garriſons at the upper forts on Ohio, and have begun a ſettlement, with 300 families, in the Twightwee country, on this ſide the S.W. end of the lake Erie, in order, as it is thought, the better to ſupply the French forts on Ohio, with proviſions for the future; that likewiſe 70 French Indians, of the Aſſundack nation, were lately arrived at the Ohio, and upwards of 300 more of the Cachnawaga and Ottawa nations, were daily expected there.

Extract of a letter from an officer at the camp at Wells's creek, Nov. 21, 1755.

"We have now got a fort compleated, with barracks for our men at the back of it, well built, and comfortable for the winter.—We had the pleaſure of being joined 3 days ago by his excellency col. Sharpe, with one company from Maryland. — Mr. Sharpe appears to be a ſtirring, active gentleman, and, by his method of proceeding, I believe a very good ſoldier, chearful and free, a man of good conduct, and one who won't be trifled with.—In the ſpring, if we have a good body of men, I make no doubt but we ſhall be able to do ſomething to purpoſe. But by the preſent ſituation of the French, they are not to be drove out of their forts, without our numbers are greatly increaſed."
